

Joshua P. Breathnach
Plaintiff,

v.

Case No 17-cv-706pp

Mitchell Billk, et al.

Declaration of Demetrios L. Cooper

I, Demetrios L. Cooper, your declarant, declare pursuant to 28 U.S.C 1746 and under the penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct.

1. I am an adult inmate recently transferred to WSPF from Waukon Correctional Institution on or around 5-14-18
2. I am not a defendant or plaintiff to this action.
3. I provide Mr. Breathnach with this declaration, based on my personal knowledge and experience with Kyle Triff and the ICE dept at Waukon Correctional Institution. SEE: Cooper v. McGann et al; 17-cv-383-jdp and Cooper v. Meyer, et al; 16-cv-526.

4. In my experience with, both Kyle Triff and the ICE dept at Waupaca Co. Inst. I have been a victim where the ICE dept. and Triff were in complicity to unethical practices, having not accept a complaint then instructing me to contact another party knowing the receiving party will not respond.

5. This practice, knowingly, impedes an inmates ability to exhaust his administrative remedies, only to later use this as a window of opportunity to later claim an inmate did not comply with the exhaustion requirements. SEE: Cooper v. McGowan, et. al; Case No. 17-cv-383-jdp at (74-75 Dkt.)

6. This is clearly a 1st Amendment violation to prevent inmates from prevailing at summary of judgment stage, which, has now been mastered by staff at Waupaca Co. Inst.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
